Hey, where's the River?...

Cambridge Arts Council takes the River to Mass Ave for the 35th Annual Cambridge River Festival

The Cambridge River Festival has occurred on the banks of the Charles River since its inception in 1977. This year, due major construction projects and large scale events taking place on this historical footprint during the same weekend as our event, Cambridge Arts has decided to celebrate the 35th Anniversary of Cambridge River Festival in one of the thriving hubs of Cambridge: The Central Square Cultural District. For more detailed information about the move please visit our website.

Arts Bazaar Vending Area Information and Regulations

About the Cambridge River Festival:

The 35th Cambridge River Festival will be held on Saturday, June 7, 2014 from 12noon-6pm (Rain or Shine).

The Cambridge River Festival is an annual celebration of arts, food, and culture. This year it will be in the cultural hub of Cambridge: Central Square. Over 150,000 people will attend this free arts festival/ The event features staged and roaming performances, family entertainment, interactive arts, food, and fine arts & crafts.

The Arts Bazaar is a curated marketplace for a wide range of items both domestically made and imported from around the world that are representative of the many ethnic and cultural backgrounds found in Cambridge. We accept vendors, who sell unique, high quality, one-of-a-kind, original and/or hand-made works. If multiple vendors want to sell similar items, we will work to minimize duplication and/or decline applications that offer overly similar items. Applications are reviewed on a first- come, first-served basis. Repeat vendors will be given priority consideration but must submit as early as possible to receive this benefit.
